

Porsche Golf Cup Australia Challenge 2026

20/01/2026 A group of 120 players will be relying on Porsche levels of precision when they take to the greens at this year's Porsche Golf Cup Australia Challenge next month.

The annual Porsche Golf Cup Australia Challenge is about to tee off. Open to current Porsche owners across Australia, this invitation-only amateur tournament is part of an international competition that brings together players from around the world, united by their shared passion for Porsche and the game of golf.

120 Porsche owners are again expected to participate in the Australian edition of this year's event series, which will be held at the exclusive Royal Melbourne Golf Club on Monday 9 February 2026.

From the full day's play, four category winners will be invited to represent Australia in their respective categories at the Porsche Golf Cup Challenge World Final, to be held in Portugal at the Penha Longa Resort from April 27-30, 2026.

Following an official Welcome event at 1 Hotel in Melbourne on Sunday, the single day event includes a pre-game lunch, celebratory presentation dinner and great camaraderie.

“The Porsche Golf Cup Australia Challenge is not just about the final score,” said Daniel Schmollinger, CEO and Managing Director of Porsche Cars Australia. “This special annual tournament is about the Porsche community spirit, new friendships and the enjoyable shared moments that make great memories.”

The competition categories in the Porsche Golf Cup Challenge are:

- Men's First Division, Men's Second Division, Men's Third Division
- Ladies' Open

The event also includes a Hole-In-One Challenge, with a Porsche Macan 4 up for grabs.

The four winning players from next month's tournament in Melbourne will play as Team Australia at the Porsche Golf Cup Challenge World Final. They will compete in both singles and as a team.

About the Porsche Golf Cup

Porsche established its own golf tournament for Porsche customers in 1988. Initially held in Germany, the Porsche Golf Cup has since developed into an international customer competition series. The Australian edition of this series commenced in 2015. The winners of each national series go on to compete against each other in the World Final – in singles and as a team – at the magnificent Penha Longa Resort in Portugal.
