

Record attempt with a Porsche 935

07/08/2018 At the end of the 1970s, Jean-Claude Rude pursued his dream of becoming the fastest cyclist in the world: 240 km/h was the breathtaking speed that the French professional cyclist was aiming to beat – in the slipstream of a Porsche 935 Turbo. Racing driver Henri Pescarolo, who was behind the wheel of the Porsche still remembers it as if it were yesterday.

MEDIA
ENQUIRIES

Jasmin Anderson

Managing Editor 9:11 Magazine
+49 (0) 170 / 911 3790
jasmin.anderson@porsche.de

Link Collection

Link to this article

<https://newsroom.porsche.com/en/history/porsche-record-attempt-jean-claude-rude-henri-pescarolo-bicycle-935-turbo-martini-1978-911-magazine-episode-7-15925.html>

Media Package

<https://pmdb.porsche.de/newsroomzips/f4c61b09-bc69-4670-8371-bb38e39c2c96.zip>

External Links

<https://911-magazine.porsche.com/en>