

Porsche Tennis Grand Prix: Qualifying finals

12/04/2026 The last four main draw slots at the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix were decided in the qualifying finals on Sunday. Anna-Lena Friedsam missed out on booking herself a main draw berth. On Monday, the focus in the Porsche Arena will be on the start of the main draw – featuring Laura Siegemund against Viktoriya Tomova on Centre Court and the inaugural Porsche One Point Challenge.

The four Porsche Tennis Grand Prix main draw qualifiers have been decided. Alycia Parks from USA overcame the Bulgarian Viktoriya Tomova 6-4, 6-2 in the qualifying final. Aliaksandra Sasnovich was a comfortable 6-1, 6-1 winner against Frenchwoman Oceane Dodin. Top-seeded Zeynep Sonmez (Turkey) lived up to her No. 1 billing when beating Anna-Lena Friedsam 6-4, 6-0. The German made life hard for her opponent in the first set but in the end had no answer. The fourth main draw ticket was secured by the Czech Gabriela Knutson who defeated Vera Zvonareva 6-3, 6-3.

Main draw start featuring Laura Siegemund

The main draw start puts the Centre Court in the Porsche Arena at the centre of attention. Laura Siegemund will take on the Bulgarian lucky loser Viktoriya Tomova who has replaced the injured Pole Magdalena Frech – not before 18.30 pm – in the day's first singles. The local hero and 2017 Stuttgart winner stressed up front that the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix was ⊠simply special" and ⊠like no other tournament". For her, the event will always remain something special.

Following on, Croatia's Antonia Ruzic will face Liudmila Samsonova. Play in the Porsche Arena will start with the doubles on Court 1 at 2.00 pm.

Porsche One Point Challenge

The premiere of the Porsche One Point Challenge will precede the day's first singles encounter on Centre Court at 4.30 pm. Under the motto, ⊠a single rally can decide everything", every match in the new show element will consist of just one point. Tennis stars like Jasmine Paolini, Elina Svitolina, Jelena Ostapenko, Paula Badosa, Porsche Friend Eva Lys and Ella Seidel will be competing as will Julia Stusek and Eva Bennemann from the Porsche Talent Team. Also in the line-up are the Endurance World Champion and former Formular 1 driver Mark Webber and Fabian Bredlow plus five ambitious amateurs. Awaiting the winner is an exclusive trip to Istanbul for two people courtesy of Turkish Airlines Holidays.
