

Porsche celebrates 20th overall victory at the 24 Hours of Daytona

26/01/2025 Porsche has won the 2025 24 Hours of Daytona. In the 63rd edition of the endurance classic, Felipe Nasr from Brazil, Nick Tandy from Great Britain, and Laurens Vanthoor from Belgium triumphed in car #7 fielded by Porsche Penske Motorsport. The Porsche 963, since its race debut in January 2023, has become the most successful race car in the LMDh category. Teammate Matt Campbell from Australia and the French duo Mathieu Jaminet and Kévin Estre secured P3.

Porsche has extended its impressive record at the 24 Hours of Daytona to 20 overall victories with the second consecutive win for the Porsche 963. The Stuttgart-based sports car manufacturer also showed a strong performance in the GT classes with the 911 GT3 R. Customer team Wright Motorsport secured a podium sport in the GTD category.

A detailed report with statements from team management and drivers, along with up-to-date photos and videos, will follow shortly.
