

Porsche Centre Doha brings rare 911 GT3 R rennsport to Qatar during Ramadan

23/02/2026 Rare rennsport model displayed as part of Ramadan, marking 20 years of Porsche representation in Qatar.

Qatar |During the Holy Month of Ramadan, Porsche Centre Doha, operated by Al Boraq Automobiles, is bringing together the Porsche family and enthusiast community in Qatar through the exclusive display of one of only 77 units worldwide of the Porsche 911 GT3 R rennsport.

The initiative forms part of the ongoing 20-year milestone of Porsche representation by Al Boraq Automobiles in Qatar, reinforcing long-standing relationships with customers, collectors and brand enthusiasts. Rather than a conventional showroom activation, the display is positioned as a community gathering moment during Ramadan, a time rooted in reflection, connection and shared appreciation.

“Ramadan is a time of connection and community. Bringing one of only 77 Porsche 911 GT3 R rennsport models to Doha allows us to gather our Porsche family and enthusiasts around something truly extraordinary. This car represents the purest form of Porsche motorsport engineering, and sharing it with our community reflects the strong bonds we have built over the past 20 years in Qatar." said Salman Jassem Al Darwish, CEO, Al Boraq Automobiles.

The presence of the 911 GT3 R rennsport strengthens emotional engagement with loyal Porsche owners, while inviting new enthusiasts into the Porsche world. It also reinforces Porsche's motorsport DNA in a refined, culturally respectful setting and elevates the showroom into a destination for meaningful brand interaction.

Throughout Ramadan, Porsche Centre Doha will host private evening viewing appointments, curated Suhoor gatherings for VIP clients and collectors, and community engagement moments with Porsche owners and enthusiasts. The showroom will offer a premium and respectful ambience aligned with the spirit of the Holy Month.

The Porsche 911 GT3 R rennsport represents one of the most extreme and exclusive expressions of Porsche's racing philosophy. It features a high-revving naturally aspirated flat-six engine, motorsport-derived aerodynamic architecture, extensive lightweight engineering and track-focused chassis precision. With production limited to only 77 units worldwide, the rennsport designation embodies Porsche's pure racing heritage, engineered without compromise and built for ultimate performance.
