26/08/2016 The Porsche North America works team campaigns two 911 RSR at round nine of the IMSA SportsCar Championship on the Virginia International Raceway on 28 August.

The winning racer from Weissach, which is based on the seventh generation of the iconic 911 sports car, tackles the hotly contested GTLM class against strong opposition from BMW, Ferrari, Ford and Chevrolet. In the GTD class, the successful customer squad Alex Job Racing fields the new Porsche 911 GT3 R. Since the more powerful prototype classes P and PC are not contesting the race on the tradition-steeped racetrack close to Alton in the US state of Virginia, the GT vehicles will fight for overall victory for the first time this season.
