

Porsche Centre Bahrain celebrates successful participation at the inaugural Royal Bahrain Concours 2025

11/12/2025 A landmark automotive showcase held under the Patronage of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister of Bahrain.

Bahrain | Porsche Centre Bahrain proudly announced its successful participation at the inaugural Royal Bahrain Concours 2025, held on 7–8 November 2025 at the Royal Golf Club. The prestigious event took place under the esteemed Patronage of His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister of Bahrain.

The Royal Bahrain Concours, organized by Thorough Events, gathered 60 of the world's most exceptional collector cars, alongside a remarkable display of 200 club vehicles from across the GCC. Porsche Centre Bahrain showcased two of the brand's most exciting performance models, the new 911

GT3 and the Cayman GT4 RS, representing the latest in Porsche motorsport engineering.

More than 50 members of the Porsche Club Bahrain attended with their own vehicles, contributing to one of the most impressive club presences at the event. Their passion and commitment earned them the prestigious title of Best Car Club in Bahrain.

The Porsche presence also extended into the heritage arena, where collectors exhibited rare and historically significant Porsche models, including the legendary Porsche 911 GT1, captivating enthusiasts and judges with its iconic racing legacy.

“We were honoured to be part of the first Royal Bahrain Concours and thrilled to showcase both the future and the heritage of Porsche,” said Timothy Price, General Manager, Porsche Centre Bahrain. “The incredible turnout from Porsche Club Bahrain and the recognition they received highlight the strength and passion of the Porsche community in the Kingdom.”

The inaugural Royal Bahrain Concours marked a milestone in Bahrain’s growing automotive culture, offering an unforgettable celebration of craftsmanship, performance, and legacy.
