

Iga Swiatek wants third Porsche Tennis Grand Prix win

15/01/2026 Iga Swiatek remains true to the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix as the two-time Stuttgart winner will once again be in action at the world class tournament in the Porsche Arena from 11 to 19 April. Other players to have already announced their intention to play the prestigious WTA 500 event are the world No. 1 Aryna Sabalenka and the German No. 1 Eva Lys.

Iga Swiatek is a highly popular regular at the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix and a real crowd favourite. She made tournament history when winning the 2022 and 2023 editions. The world No. 2 will be coming to the Porsche Arena as the reigning Wimbledon champion.

“I can hardly wait to get back to Stuttgart for the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix,” says the 24-year-old Pole. “Playing the tournament is a nice tradition I have. I’m looking forward to the fantastic atmosphere in the Porsche Arena and the top-class tennis. As always, I’ll be giving my best to go as deep as possible.”

“We’re delighted that Iga has entered,” says Tournament Director Markus Günthardt. “Having a six-time Grand Slam champion is a real honour. Our audiences love Iga for her classy tennis and her tireless fighting spirit."

Iga Swiatek's list of achievements include Grand Slam titles at Wimbledon (2025), the French Open (2020, 2022, 2023, 2024) and the US Open (2022). Another is the winning of the 2023 WTA Finals. She has been world ranked No. 1 for a total of 125 weeks. The Pole also set a special record when winning 37 consecutive matches between 21 February 2022 (Doha) and 27 Juni 2022 (Wimbledon). It is to date the longest WTA winning streak in the 21st century. Iga Swiatek has 25 career WTA titles to her name. Her latest success came in the preparations for the Australian Open when, playing for Poland, she won the United Cup, the star-studded team mixed competition held in Sydney and Perth.

Aryna Sabalenka and Eva Lys also in the Porsche Arena

In addition to Iga Swiatek, the world No. 1 Aryna Sabalenka, recently named WTA Tour Player of the Year, will also be competing in the Porsche Arena. Another player to have entered is the Porsche Friend Eva Lys, currently Germany's top player. Anke Huber, the Operating Tournament Director of the time-honoured WTA 500 event, is in the midst of promising talks with further top stars and is "very confident that other prominent players will have entered by after the Australian Open at the latest."

Porsche in tennis

The flagship of Porsche's commitment to women's tennis worldwide is the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix, which has been held since 1978. The Stuttgart WTA tournament stands for tradition and innovation – just like the Porsche brand. As the most loyal sponsor of women's international tennis, Porsche has accompanied the WTA's oldest indoor event right from the start. Porsche has also been supporting women's tennis internationally for years. Eva Lys and Maria Sakkari are "Friends of the Brand" in their home countries. Porsche has been a premium partner of the "Deutsche Tennis Bund" (DTB – German Tennis Association) since 2012 and is committed to fostering up-and-coming players in the Porsche Talent Team and the Porsche Junior Team.
