12/04/2018 In this anniversary year, episode 6 of the 9:11 Magazine is devoted to the highlights from seven decades of Porsche automotive history. The web TV format shows special models and extraordinary technology - from the 356 to the Mission E.

The 1950s

Matt Hummel is a Porsche enthusiast with a special philosophy. He's left his 1956 Porsche 356 just as he found it: with a striking patina and plenty of dings. His reasoning is simple: "The Porsche was made to be driven, not for the garage."

The 1960s

A video from 1967 shows the 911 2.0 Targa in a wind tunnel. On board: a model and the question: Will the hairdo survive the fierce winds? In chapter 2, the current Targa does the hairdo test as well.

The 1970s

The 917 KH Gulf: motor racing legend and star of the film "Le Mans" with Steve McQueen. Now the powerful 1970s icon in the Porsche vehicle warehouse is experiencing a revival – with the help of oil paints from YouTuber Roman Miah.

Four decades: 1980s-2010s

Icons from four decades: From the 959 to the 918 Spyder, from the eighties to today – this chapter highlights the four models that embodied the zeitgeist of their respective decades.

Mission: Future

The interior of a Porsche: "Always a league of its own." Ivo van Hulten, Director of Interior Design Style at Porsche, on the challenge of uniting tradition and innovation in the Mission E Cross Turismo. The vision of a creative mind.
