09/11/2023 CEOs, leaders and experts gathered in Munich.

As part of our "Executive Dinner" event series, Eberhard Weiblen, CEO of Porsche Consulting, welcomed top managers, entrepreneurs, industry experts, thought leaders, and innovators to explore the challenges facing companies in uncertain times. As always, bringing people together, dialogue and discussion were the focus of this year's second Executive Dinner in Munich hosted by Porsche Consulting and Agora Strategy.

Eberhard Weiblen and Dr. Timo Blenk, CEO of Agora Strategy, started the event and discussion of strategic opportunities and risks from a global perspective. Prof. Dr. h.c. Wolfgang Ischinger, a former ambassador of the Federal Republic of Germany and longstanding head of the renowned Munich Security Conference, emphasized in his speech the importance of geopolitical expertise and strategic risk management in times of disruptive geopolitical change: “The frequency and severity of geopolitical crises around the world has increased in recent decades. Managerial strategic planning in line with changing geopolitical dynamics is therefore more important than ever.”

Thanks to our inspiring guests for the discussion and for enriching the evening with their individual perspectives.
