The Rallye de La Réunion: a not-to-be-missed event

One of the most popular sporting events on the island, the Rallye de La Réunion holds a special place in the hearts of the inhabitants of Réunion. It began on 5 and 6 April with the start of the National Rally at Petite-Ile, in the Sud Sauvage region. Every year, between the sea and the mountains, the curvy, technical tracks tested the best teams, who had to combine technical mastery, speed and strategy to dominate these mythical roads.

For the 2025 season, the Centre Porsche Réunion has the honour of sponsoring the Dupuy-Omarjee team, who will be at the wheel of the only Porsche 991 GT+. This partnership underlines the Porsche Centre Réunion's commitment to local motorsport and its desire to support the development of Réunion's racing talent.

An exclusive event was held at the Porsche Centre in the presence of the trade press, the team's partners, the Porsche Centre team and personalities such as François Caillé, CEO of the Caillé Group, and Marc Bergeretti, Managing Director. The meeting was an opportunity to officially introduce the team, just a few days before they take part in the first round of the National Rally at Petite-Ile, an area particularly popular with drivers due to its technical and twisty roads. It was a privileged moment of exchange between enthusiasts, celebrating the spirit of competition and the passion for performance that drives our community.

Maxime Dupuy and Zakaria Omarjee: an experienced and ambitious duo

His technical mastery and competitive spirit make him a great asset for the 2025 season.

Zakaria Omarjee, co-driver since 1990, brings his unrivalled expertise. At his side since 2012, he plays a key role in guiding the team with precision and efficiency. The eight-strong support team complements the duo perfectly, ensuring impeccable preparation for each event. Together they form a team ready to push the limits of performance with the Porsche 991 GT+.
