

Porsche Centre Ahmedabad relocates to new facility

14/10/2026 The relocated 5,000-square-foot facility offers an enhanced customer experience and hosts the regional debut of the Cayenne Electric following its national launch.

India | Porsche Centre Ahmedabad has relocated to a new facility, continuing to serve customers and Porsche enthusiasts in Gujarat. The relocation coincides with the regional introduction of the new Cayenne Electric, following its national debut in Mumbai.

Located in the heart of New Ahmedabad, the showroom has been developed by Kataria Motors, Porsche India's longest-serving dealer partner. Spanning more than 5,000 square feet, the facility offers substantially larger customer areas and more space for visitors to explore the Porsche model range.

The new Porsche Centre Ahmedabad can display up to five Porsche vehicles, allowing customers to discover the brand's latest models in a contemporary showroom environment. The facility forms part of Porsche India's ongoing development of its retail network, with a focus on delivering a premium and personalised customer experience.

"We are pleased to inaugurate the new location of Porsche Centre Ahmedabad together with Kataria Motors, our longest-serving dealer partner in India," said Ashutosh Dixit, Head of Porsche India.

"The relocation builds on our long-standing presence in Gujarat and coincides with the regional introduction of the new Cayenne Electric. The larger facility and enhanced customer areas allow us to offer an improved experience for our customers and Porsche enthusiasts in the region."

The event also saw the regional introduction of the new Cayenne Electric in Gujarat, bringing the latest addition to Porsche's electric portfolio to customers in the region. Available in India in two variants, the Cayenne Electric and Cayenne Turbo Electric, the new model combines Porsche sports car performance with electric mobility and the everyday usability of an SUV.

The Cayenne Electric is priced from ₹1,77,27,000, while the Cayenne Turbo Electric is priced from ₹2,27,51,000 in India. The new generation represents an important step in the electrification of the Cayenne model line, combining driving performance, advanced technology and versatility.

The relocated Porsche Centre Ahmedabad provides existing and prospective customers in Gujarat with more space discover Porsche's model portfolio, including its latest electric vehicles.

Together with Kataria Motors, Porsche India will continue to serve customers in Gujarat with a focus on personalised service and the Porsche ownership experience.
