21/03/2016 The time has come, and it will be this Wednesday, March 23: Porsche will present the 919 Hybrid for the first time in its new livery for the 2016 FIA World Endurance Championship (WEC) and the Le Mans 24 Hours.

For this on March 23 at 7am (CET) all the company's online platforms will be activated. The presentation of the actual Le Mans Prototypes will follow one day later, March 24, at 2pm (CET) at the Paul Ricard race track in Southern France. It is there where the 2016 WEC season officially kicks off with what is called the Prologue – a two-day test (March 25 and 26) for the entire starting field with numerous media events and interview opportunities, plus free entry for spectators on Saturday.
