

The new Porsche 911 GT3 RS is ready for its unveiling

17/08/2022 The 911 GT3 RS, the new top of the 911 line in terms of performance will celebrate its world premiere on August 17th. The development of the high-performance sports car was inspired by the successful 911 RSR and 911 GT3 R racing cars.

“The new 911 GT3 RS is even more optimized for track use than its predecessors. The incredibly responsive, high-revving four-liter, six-cylinder boxer engine with approximately 500 hp has proven ideal for use at track days and club sport events,” says Andreas Preuninger, Director GT Model Line. “That's why we focused primarily on aerodynamics and chassis areasin the development of the new 911 GT3 RS.”

Broadcast on August 17th at 11:00 a.m. EDT

The digital world premiere of the new Porsche 911 GT3 RS will be broadcast on newstv.porsche.com on August 17th at 11:00 a.m. EDT (5:00 pm CEST). The video will also be available on demand there after the event.
