24/12/2019 The editors of the Porsche Newsroom wish you a Merry Christmas.

For Porsche, 2019 has heralded a new chapter in the company's history: with the world premiere of the Taycan and the opening of the CO_2-neutral factory for Porsche's first all-electric sports car, the manufacturer has reached a new milestone. Electric mobility is also a job engine for Porsche: the Taycan will create 1,500 new jobs at the Zuffenhausen location.

So a lot has already happened. But at Christmas it's also time to pause and calm down. We wish you, dear readers, a blessed Christmas and a healthy, successful year 2020.
