

Porsche Centre Lebanon unique classic corner

22/06/2024 Maintaining its reputation as one of the few worldwide Porsche Classic Partners, Porsche Centre Lebanon has reserved a special corner in its Medawar Showroom to showcase its timeless classics.

Lebanon | Porsche Centre Lebanon's Medawar Showroom is a haven for classic Porsches with a world-class restoration and classic car workshop on site and it is spreading this message through a unique art installation created by famous artist "T. Durden Studio" which has turned a section of its Showroom into a classic car corner.

The corner consists of a display comprising the rotation of two classic cars for sale through Porsche Centre Lebanon set on an elegant parquet flooring in front of a specially commissioned graffiti wall created by T. Durden Studios. This depicts a classic Porsche 964 being restored in a workshop, peering through an optical illusion of a window designed on the wall.

"My team at Porsche Centre Lebanon continue to amaze and impress both me and our customers with their creative and innovative ideas," Porsche Centre Lebanon's Chief Executive Officer, Assaad Raphael said.

"This graffiti-style artwork by none other than T. Durden Studio is an absolutely perfect way to show, in a creative way, that we are one of the very few Porsche Classic Partners worldwide and the only one in the Middle East which can bring some of the most beautiful and desirable Porsches from the past back to Concours condition."
