

Porsche Centre Bahrain supports Bahrain Ministry of Interior Tennis Challenger 2026

09/02/2026 Porsche Centre Bahrain, represented by Behbehani Brothers W.L.L, reaffirmed its commitment to supporting national sporting initiatives by sponsoring the Bahrain Ministry of Interior Tennis Challenger for the third consecutive year.

Bahrain |The ATP Challenger 125 tournament was held at the Public Security Officers Club from 27 January to 1 February 2026, spanning six days of high-level international competition.

The event formed part of the ATP Challenger Tour calendar and featured a total prize purse of USD 225,500, attracting top professional players from around the world.

The 2026 edition concluded with a strong final match, where Kyrian Jacquet of France claimed the championship title, while Luca Nardiof Italy finished as runner-up after an impressive tournament run.

“We are honoured to support the Bahrain Ministry of Interior Tennis Challenger. This tournament reflects the Ministry’s ongoing commitment to promoting sport, healthy competition, and community engagement in the Kingdom of Bahrain. At Behbehani Brothers and Porsche Centre Bahrain, we strongly believe in the power of sport to inspire excellence, discipline, and unity, and we are proud to be part of an initiative that brings international sporting standards to Bahrain.” said Mohamed Janahi, Managing Director of Behbehani Brothers W.L.L.

The Bahrain Ministry of Interior Tennis Challenger has become a key fixture on the regional sporting calendar, reinforcing Bahrain’s position as a host destination for international tournaments and providing local audiences with access to world-class tennis.

Through its continued sponsorship, Porsche Centre Bahrain remains committed to supporting initiatives that align with performance, precision, and excellence—values shared across sport, community development, and the Porsche brand.
