

Porsche hosts a memorable Ramadan evening in Tunis, bringing together clients and enthusiasts

05/03/2026 Porsche centre Tunis brought together its customers and brand enthusiasts for an unforgettable Ramadan evening, combining elegance, connection and cultural immersion in a setting that reflected the brand's distinctive lifestyle and community spirit.

Tunisia |In the spirit of Ramadan, Porsche hosted an exclusive gathering under the starry skies of Tunis, offering guests a unique experience where automotive excellence met the richness of local traditions. The evening was designed as a moment of connection, bringing together clients and brand enthusiasts in an atmosphere defined by warmth and refinement.

The venue was transformed into a space that balanced tradition and modernity, enhanced by soft lighting and subtle oriental touches. The setting provided an opportunity to explore Porsche's iconic models and its vision for the future of mobility in an intimate environment. The programme featured a live musical performance, providing a cultural element aligned with Tunisian traditions and the occasion.

Guests were also invited to explore a selection of Porsche models available in Tunisia, highlighting the diversity of the range. From SUVs that combine performance with everyday comfort, to iconic sports cars defined by timeless design, and a forward-looking approach shaped by electromobility, the display reflected Porsche's commitment to innovation and excellence across its portfolio.

The evening continued over a refined selection of local flavours, where guests connected and shared their passion for the brand in a relaxed and engaging setting. More than an event, the gathering reflected Porsche's ongoing commitment to creating meaningful experiences that go beyond the product, fostering a community built on passion, connection and a distinctive lifestyle.
