Porsche Cars North America, together with WeatherTech Raceway Laguna Seca and the Historic

Sportscar Racing (HSR), has formerly announced the all-star on-track schedule for the upcoming Porsche Rennsport Reunion 7. Over 300 race cars will participate in competition at the world's largest gathering of Porsche enthusiasts across four days. The seventh celebration of Porsche motorsport past, present and future will take place September 28 – October 1 in Monterey, California.

Atlanta. Porsche Cars North America (PCNA) unveiled a schedule of activities for the on-track action for Porsche Rennsport Reunion 7. The world's largest gathering of Porsche enthusiasts will enjoy eight classes of legendary Porsche race cars spanning seven decades. The September 28 – October 1 event, held at WeatherTech Raceway Laguna Seca, will celebrate iconic racers from the past, through to the cutting edge of today, including the German marque's most current international prototype racer, the 963, as well as be the site of rounds 13 and 14 of the Porsche Deluxe Carrera Cup North America featuring the mighty 911 GT3 Cup car. In addition to the track competition, boundless family friendly activities will be found around the Monterey, California property all four days.

A record number of entries are expected to take part in the track action within the eight groups. In addition, the Porsche Club of America (PCA) and exhibition car runs will join the Porsche Deluxe Carrera Cup North America, the premier one-make race series in the United States and Canada, to entertain enthusiasts of the German sports car manufacturer. The 2.238-mile track, famous for its signature "Corkscrew" turn, will offer nearly constant action from 8:00 a.m. through 6:30 p.m. each day.

The WeatherTech Raceway track will be active during Rennsport Reunion 7
