

Passion meets performance: Porsche Club Jordan hosts thrilling track day experience in Amman

08/07/2025 An exhilarating day of speed, skill, and celebration unfolded on July 7th as Porsche Centre Jordan, in collaboration with Porsche Club Jordan, hosted an exclusive Track Day event that brought together approximately 150 to 200 Porsche enthusiasts and club members.

Jordan |Held at one of the capital's racetrack venues – Manja Circuit, the event offered participants a rare opportunity to experience the full performance potential of their Porsche vehicles in a controlled, high-adrenaline environment.

The day's agenda included a competitive driving challenge, where owners tested their abilities through timed laps and precision handling exercises.

The competition finished in an awards ceremony that recognized the top-performing drivers across multiple categories. Racers were celebrated not only for their speed but for their skill, control, and sportsmanship, all in true Porsche fashion.

Adding to the lively atmosphere, the event also featured a curated selection of local vendors, allowing guests and families to enjoy a full-day experience beyond the racetrack.

“Partnering with Porsche Club Jordan and supporting local vendors allowed us to create many memorable experiences that reflect the essence of Porsche ownership in Jordan.”

At the end of the high-energy competition, an awards ceremony was held to recognize standout performances across various categories. Mr. Ziad Massanat achieved First Place, followed by Mr. Samer Salhi in Second Place, and Mr. Saad Farah in Third Place. Winners were determined based on their performance in timing laps and speed tests.

Porsche Centre Jordan continues to lead the way in offering unique brand activations that connect customers with the brand's motorsport legacy while building a strong and engaged Porsche community.
