Four Porsche 911 GT3 R didn't make it to the chequered flag

The best Porsche 911 GT3 R in the overall classification was the vehicle with the starting number 31. Taking up the race from 29th on the grid, Michael Christensen, Klaus Bachler, Lucas Luhr and Norbert Siedler driving for Frikadelli Racing Team made their way up the field to finish the Eifel marathon on 6th position. Their teammates in the #30 car put in a spirited drive to bring the Porsche home in 17th position after 24 hours.

Four other Porsche 911 GT3 R didn't make it to the chequered flag at the 45th running of the long-distance classic. Manthey Racing's 500 hp nine-elevens with the starting number 59 and 12 were sidelined with technical troubles. The #911 had to be pushed back to the garage after being shunted from the race. The same fate met Falken Motorsports' Porsche 911 GT3 R (#44).

"I had a great lap in Top-30-Qualifying. I am happy with P8", says @Sven_Mueller14 who was quickest Porsche driver today. #911GT3R pic.twitter.com/BUaquVFNeu
