17/03/2025 Porsche Centre Abu Dhabi and Al Ain has created an enticing Majlis for the Holy Month of Ramadan for guests, customers and their friends to immerse themselves in traditional Arabic culture and design mixed with modern luxury and a cozy ambience.

Abu Dhabi |Following the success of last year's Ramadan Majlis, Porsche Centre Abu Dhabi and Al Ain has again transformed its showroom into an exclusive cultural space for Ramadan 2025.

In addition to presenting live oud music each night and offering a wide selection of Arabic sweets and bites, Porsche Centre Abu Dhabi and Al Ain will also host interactive quiz nights and in keeping with the spirit of Ramadan, exclusive giveaways will be offered as a special token of appreciation for our valued customers.

"Porsche Centre Abu Dhabi is honoured to celebrate Ramadan 2025 by transforming our showroom into an exclusive Majlis that seamlessly blends traditional Arabian design with Porsche's modern luxury," said Wissam Khalil, General Manager of Porsche Centre Abu Dhabi and Al Ain.

"We will host engaging customer quizzes where participants can test their knowledge about Porsche, with winners receiving exclusive prizes from the Porsche Lifestyle collection.

"In the spirit of giving, we will also offer a special Ramadan giveaway throughout the holy month with thoughtful gifts to our valued customers and we are pleased to offer an exclusive 0% financing deal for up to four years on the Taycan 4S.

"This reflects our commitment to innovation and sustainability and making the dream of owning an all-electric Porsche more attainable during this special time." said Khalil.

The Majlis has been designed to reflect Porsche's commitment to cultural appreciation by integrating traditional Arabian aesthetics with a modern luxury design theme that's in keeping with Porsche's design philosophy.

The result is a serene environment for reflection and connection, enhancing the customer experience beyond a conventional showroom, while the incentives provide a fun, interactive way to connect with customers in an informal setting to create an engaging and memorable element.

The exclusive Taycan 4S offer underscores Porsche's dedication to innovation and sustainability, inviting customers to embrace the future of electric performance.

"We warmly welcome our customers to join us in this celebration of culture, luxury, and community throughout Ramadan 2025." said Khalil.
