

Sharapova: With Porsche at the WTA Finals

27/10/2015 Maria Sharapova talks about her ongoing role as a Porsche Ambassador and her appearance at the WTA Finals.

With the iconic Marina Bay as a photography backdrop, Maria and the new Panamera Edition encapsulated both sophistication and grace, a philosophy Maria follows with regards to life and sport, as she states in the video above.

Porsche has been a long-time supporter of women's tennis beginning in 1978 with the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix, Europe's oldest women's indoor tournament. As the official automotive sponsor of the WTA Finals in Singapore, Porsche is taking its partnership with women's professional tennis to the next level.

The WTA Finals will take place from 23rd October to 1st November, with all games played at the Singapore Indoor Stadium. The Top 8 singles players will compete for the prestigious Billie Jean King Trophy and a record USD7 million in prize money, while the Top 8 doubles teams will compete for the Martina Navratilova Trophy.
