17/07/2018 In winning Wimbledon, Angelique Kerber recently celebrated the biggest success of her career: On the way back home from the world's most prestigious tournament, the Porsche Brand Ambassador stopped over in Stuttgart on Tuesday. She gave her first press conference in Germany after her historical triumph in the Porsche Museum.

Angelique Kerber is the new queen of Wimbledon. On Saturday, she beat the American Serena Williams 6-3, 6-3 in the final to win the world's most prestigious tennis tournament and celebrate the biggest success of her career. After the Australian Open and the US Open, it is the Porsche Brand Ambassador's third Grand Slam win. In her first appearance in the Wimbledon final two years ago in 2016, she succumbed to Serena Williams. This time around however, she secured the most coveted trophy in women's tennis – the first German to do so since Steffi Graf in 1996.

Her triumph at the tennis Mecca on the Church Road in London means that Angelique Kerber, the 2015 and 2016 winner of the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix, will rise up the world rankings to No. 4.
