Organised by Ethara in collaboration with Abu Dhabi Public Health Centre, The Power of Pink brought women together for an evening of wellness activities, expert-led discussions and opportunities to engage with important health topics in an accessible and supportive environment.

As part of the programme, Porsche Centre Abu Dhabi and Al Ain hosted its signature Porsche Pilates session, inviting participants to enjoy an experience focused on balance, focus and mindful movement. Set against the backdrop of Yas Marina Circuit, the session offered participants a moment to connect, recharge and participate in a wider programme dedicated to women's health.

"Breast Cancer Awareness Month is an important opportunity to encourage conversations around women's health, and we were proud to support The Power of Pink alongside our partners at Yas Marina Circuit," said Wissam Khalil, General Manager Porsche Centre Abu Dhabi and Al Ain.

“Through Porsche Pilates, we wanted to contribute to an initiative that brings people together while supporting an important message. The evening reflected the strength of community and the positive impact that shared experiences can have in creating awareness and encouraging meaningful dialogue."
