Porsche Tennis Grand Prix favourite tournament in 2017

Award for the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix: Players liked the event more than any other tournament.

They have once again voted the long-standing Stuttgart event as their favourite tournament in its category (Premier 700) – for the ninth time since the move to the Porsche Arena in 2006 and for the fourth time in succession. “The award comes from the players which is what makes it so valuable,” said Tournament Director Markus Günthardt. “They’ve therefore shown us just how much at home they feel here and how much they appreciate our efforts to make the tournament even better. The prize is a both a mark of their trust and a spur for us.”
